PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 31.—The desperate Richmond team, with a berth in the second division staring it in the face, after tasting the sweets of first place and three solid defeats behind it as a memento of the initial whit to our city, went after the final ame of the series at Melrose Park to-day, by a ninth-inning rally, in which a brace of runs was corraled, after two were down, and walked away with the victory by a score of Nobody believed Bill Smith's mer could do it when the ninth rolled around with the Grays leading by a single run, and Billiard almost unhit-table, although wild as a carload of March hares. With courage keyed up to the highest pitch, the Climbers, with the top, of the batting order up, played the string to the limit, and by almost duplicating the stunt of the Grays in duplicating the stunt of the Grays in the opening game, wiped out the stigma of that defeat in full measure.

Billiard had been in trouble for the greater part of the game, and up to the end of the fifth was hit hard by the followers of Billy Smith. But from the sixth on, the former Federal Leaguer and noted spitball artist had the invaders under his thumb, as far as bingles were concerned, but his wild streak cropped out again in the fatal ninth, and the bottled hits were let loose.

ARRAGON'S DRIVE TO CENTER PROVES WINNING HIT

Clemens had outguessed Billiard in the two previous walks to the plate and had drawn passes. He played the same waiting game in the ninth and was given a ticket to first that meant was given a ticket to first that meant the tieing run. Richmond played the game, and Eibel laid down a beautiful bunt that advanced Clemens to second, although he fell a victim on a fine play, Brainard to Onslow. Hendryx, who had walloped the ball unmercifully on each trip to the plate, slammed a starter at Fabrique and was thrown Then along came Arragon with blood in his eye and a three-base hit concealed in his slapstick. With three and two, he flailed the apple to deep center, and, with the game hanging on the drive, the crowd watched Powell's efforts to the crowd watched Powell's efforts to military to the crowd pull it down. The Rabbit appeared to hesitat) for a moment, and then set sail after the soaring sphere with everything drawing. The race was watched with breathless interest by everybody in the park except the man who made the hit who was tearing bases—Almeida, P. Smith, Moran Left on bases and who made the hit, who was tearing along the highway between first and second at the moment it seemed as though Powell had the pill in his grasp. The ball tickled the Rabbit's glove, but had too much power behind it to stick, and bobbed away toward the corner.
